RANGE FIRING SCHEDULE FOR THE PERIOD OF November 11th – 17th, 2018

GRAYLING, Mich. – It will be very quiet out here at Camp Grayling Joint Maneuver Training center significantly during the second week of November. There are no scheduled small arms training scheduled for this timeframe for the small arms ranges located south of the camp.

Further north of Camp Grayling Multi-Purpose Range Complex also known as the Range 30 complex, located north of North Down River Road, east of Jones Lake Road, south of County Road 612 and west of Bald Hill Truck Trail will have some training activity taking place. All roads and trails west of Wakeley Bridge road, to include; Bucks East-West Truck Trail from Jones Lake Road to Wakeley Bridge Road, Ketchum truck Trail from Bucks East-West to North Down River Road, and Stephen Bridge Road from County Road 612 to North Down River Road will be open to civilian traffic. Please respect all closed gates and do not enter these areas for your safety. If you feel a gate is closed in error, please call Camp Grayling Headquarters at (989)344-6100 to verify the closure of the gate.

Camp Grayling's Range 40 Complex, also known as the Air to Ground range, which is located north of County Road 612, east of Guthrie Lake, south of Old State Road 618 and west of County Road F97 (Twin Bridge Road) residents in the area may see or hear low flying fixed wing aircrafts, Tuesday, November 13th and Wednesday, November 14th. These aircraft will not be dropping any ordinance, but only conducting "Dry Runs" on to the bombing range.
